

Tony Cliffe

Regulation Inspector

What people like and admire about me

- Friendly
- Reflective
- Passionate about my work
- Thoughtful
- Well mannered
- Family man

What is important to me

- Live in Chorley with Lorraine and my daughter Freya
- Play football - 5 a side, twice a week on Tuesdays and Fridays
- Spending time with my family every week - going to National Trust properties, going swimming together on a Sunday morning, going to parks
- Going camping with them family whenever we can
- Reading - I love history and science fiction. I read every night even if it is just for a few minutes
- Listening to music, particularly in the car. Anything from Handle to Reggae
- Never to smell or eat cooked onions or liver
- Having clear priorities at work and to feel organised and know what I want to achieve each day
- Never being late for meetings

How best to support me

- Give me constructive feedback so that I can keep improving how I work. I am happy for people to point things out to me
- For work colleagues to know that I have a sensitive side and find it difficult if I had inadvertently upset people
