

Winston's Review

What People who know Winston like and admire about him

He's a true gentleman

such a gentleman, so polite

An old romantic

Honest

So welcoming

The way he speaks up for himself and others

Always willing to try a new challenge

A great sport and enjoys dancing

Always puts others first

Really caring and considerate, genuinely cares about others

sensitive to other people's feelings

His smile and sense of humour

Winston's Person Centred Review July 2007

Page 4

he does nice things for me

His Lovely warm personality, how he makes everyone welcome

He's a pleasure to be with and to spend time with

What's Important to Winston Now

Having a cup of tea, first thing in the morning the kettle goes on

Phoning my eldest sister

Going to Denton Labour Club and having a pint of mild

Going out at the weekend

Listening to my favourite music; Foster & Allen, Jim Reeves

Sitting in my garden

Watching gardening programmes, documentaries and dancing

My photographs of my Mam and friends

Being a member of different groups

Winston's Person Centred Review July 2007

Page 5

Going out and meeting my friends

Going on holiday at Christmas and in the summer

Going out for meals and Sunday Lunch

What's Important to Winston in the future

Keeping his independence (Sue)

Keeping close friendship with Emma, continuing to go for meals and for drinks to have a good talk and catch up (Emma)

Being at each other's important events (my son's christening, my mum's 50th and other events) (Emma)

To find a girlfriend/partner (Steve/ Winston)

Keeping healthy and having support with appointments (Lisa)

Meet a lady friend and build a relationship

Go out more at weekends

Winston's Person Centred Review July 2007

Page 6

Examples of Best Practice

Winston's Review

Go on holiday perhaps once a year if able to do so (Steve)

To continue to go away on holiday

Keeping as healthy as can be (Steve)

How we best support Winston including keeping him healthy and safe

Help to order and pick up my prescription

Shopping at Morrison's

Using a wheelchair when I am unsteady on my feet

I have a cleaner that comes every week

I have my meals delivered no Monday's and Thursdays

I need support to do my budget

Help with my tablets in the morning

Write appointments down in my diary

Read my letters to me

To have someone to go on holiday with me

To use my walking stick when I go out anywhere

Getting to know Lisa, my new community nurse

Winston's Person Centred Review July 2007 Page 7

To remind Winston to keep his front door and windows locked at all times, and to wear his pendant for warden control. To check the house for any potential hazards on a daily basis (sue)

Having someone to listen to him (Emma)

Having a friend to help with his money when we're out together (Emma))

Opportunities to meet/find a partner in a safe environment (Steve)

	What's working?	What's Not Working?
Winston's View	Going to Gateway and meeting Linda Being a member of the Implementation Group/Values Group and People First The support that I have to do my cleaning and take my tablets Going away on holiday	Not being able to get out because of my bad leg Not getting out enough at weekends Not having any friends to go out with Back garden fence broken trouble with school kids running through Finding a lady friend Can't go to the Monday club because ring & ride is not picking me up
Other's view	Socialising with other people at the getting	Getting up and down the front door step Retrieving phone messages

Winston's Person Centred Review July 2007 Page 8