

Nora didn't like it when the night staff kept on closing her door at night (because it was a fire door) as she likes to look through the mirror to see if anyone is in the corridor. Steve and Sheila have now had a smoke detector fitted to the bottom of the door so as she can keep it open every night.

Nora